Stopping that hoax used the Harvard educated author s background as an M.D. murder case consultant, her expertise in Billy the Kid history, and her willingness to risk danger. The Billy the Kid Case hoax was a self-serving publicity stunt by a governor, lawmen, and accomplices using illegal exhumations and faked DNA claims. The author s transforming personal journey exposed New Mexico s Santa Fe Ring corruption, debunked old-timer Billy the Kid pretenders, and enlisted aid from pre-eminent DNA experts and the modern family of Pat Garrett; until the author stood alone in a court as pro se to stop the hoaxers with penalties against them of a million dollars. Ultimately, cracking the hoax came from the author s finding a document revealing the hoax s secret and shocking motive. She was further amazed that the modern Santa Fe Ring s players matched the antique Ring players in the days of Billy the Kid. The Lincoln County War fought them in Billy s day; this modern fight was its rerun.
