Yes, where are now those sandy plains Once roll'd the foaming tide, But the eruptions of the earth Fore'd it on another side. Your earth, it widely open'd its mouth, And clos'd above the tide, But on the bosom of the same, Your gallant ships do ride. We write from France and Italy, Places of renown. And what we know of interest Endeavor to pen down. Some may deride our history And call it all a hoax, But the oasis smiling now Once issued fire and smoke.
