We are waging with them a battle of commerce, and with a bombardment of example. England and Europe respect our gallant young men, as gallant as any that ever graced her soil, or the soil of any country on the earth. She respects them as we did when the war called for them, and they responded--as we respect the brave veterans the war made of them. Their system of standing armies will never be battered down by American cannon balls, but it is already tottering to its fall under the constant bombardment of American example. France is a Republic with her Chambers of Deputies, and is one of the strongest Nations of Europe. Germany elects her Federal Councils by States. Even distant China is modeling her affairs upon our methods. Already she builds telegraphs and railroads that a few years ago she drove from her at the muzzles of guns. And Japan has been fairly revolutionized since brave COMMODORE PERRY sailed into those seas. Japan is now urging upon the Mikados counselors the adoption of constitutional liberty. She has adopted our systems into her schools. Her school books are printed in English. All this tells of the power of American example upon the dead or dying countries of the East--of the thrill America has sent through the lethargic East that is awakening those dying countries from the sleep of ages. This Nation must step forward and take her proper position in the family of...
