No class or stratum of Society has the monopoly of those remarkable individuals. They are just as likely to be found in the Whitechapel Road as in some cloistered Oxford College, in some suburban villa as in a mansion matured by the centuries - in a grammar or secondary school as in a great public school of hallowed tradition. It is the individual and not the surroundings which make them; they are born to immortality and achieve it, no matter against what odds. Art, Literature, Science, Medicine, Politics, Philanthropy, Philosophy, the Fighting Services, the Drama, the Stage, Commerce, Engineering - every profession and calling has them; and so had even a peculiar branch of public entertainment which has now become extinct in its genuine form because it served a particular era of Life; and that particular entertainment form was the Music Hall. Music Hall existed for barely one hundred years but in its day, so vital and so strong was it, that it raised its immortals. Few in number, it is true, but they were great in achievement, few but very select, and in their own line, very great too. None of them was greater or better beloved than a woman known to the world as Marie Lloyd. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
