.In The Apartments Next To Mine is a collection of short stories about ordinary people that could live next door to any one of us. They are fictional stories of families dealing with extraordinary things like Assimilation, Schizophrenia, Unfulfilled Life and some reflecting on a great life at a time when age has brought wisdom. What you will find in this collection is a little something for everyone, no matter what stage of life you find yourself in. Whether it s a humorous look at a frightening trip to the dentist as in Chamber of Horrors or even the introduction to the James family in Going Home. A prodigal story about a family dealing with past hurts and forgiveness.but this story also leaves wondering, what s next? In Kaleidoscope, we see a family struggling with the pain many other American families feel when a family member has a mental illness. Ndulu is a time traveling science-fiction story. Or you can think of it as a metaphor. It s a trek through some of America s...
