Schauffler, a charter member of this Association, was born on September 11, 1839, in Vienna, Austria, where his father. Rev. William Gottlieb Schauffler, D.D., one of the pioneer American missionaries at Constantinople, Turkey, was spending a year. His mother, Mary Reynolds Schauffler, came from Longmeadow, Mass., of Puritan stock. His early boyhood years were spent in Constantinople, and at the age of twelve, having even then acquired a knowledge of several Oriental languages, including Turkish, he acted as interpreter to the commanding General of the British Army in the Crimea. Later he served as an attache in the American Embassy at Constantinople, and then came to this country to complete his education at Williams College. He left college to study medicine, at first under a preceptor, and later at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, New York. This work was interrupted at the outbreak of the Civil War, by his joining the 127th New York Volunteers as First Lieutenant...
